THE SENIORS AND THE SENATOR . . .

PRESENT . . .

RALPH C. MAHAR REGIONAL HIGH

THE 1964 T O G A

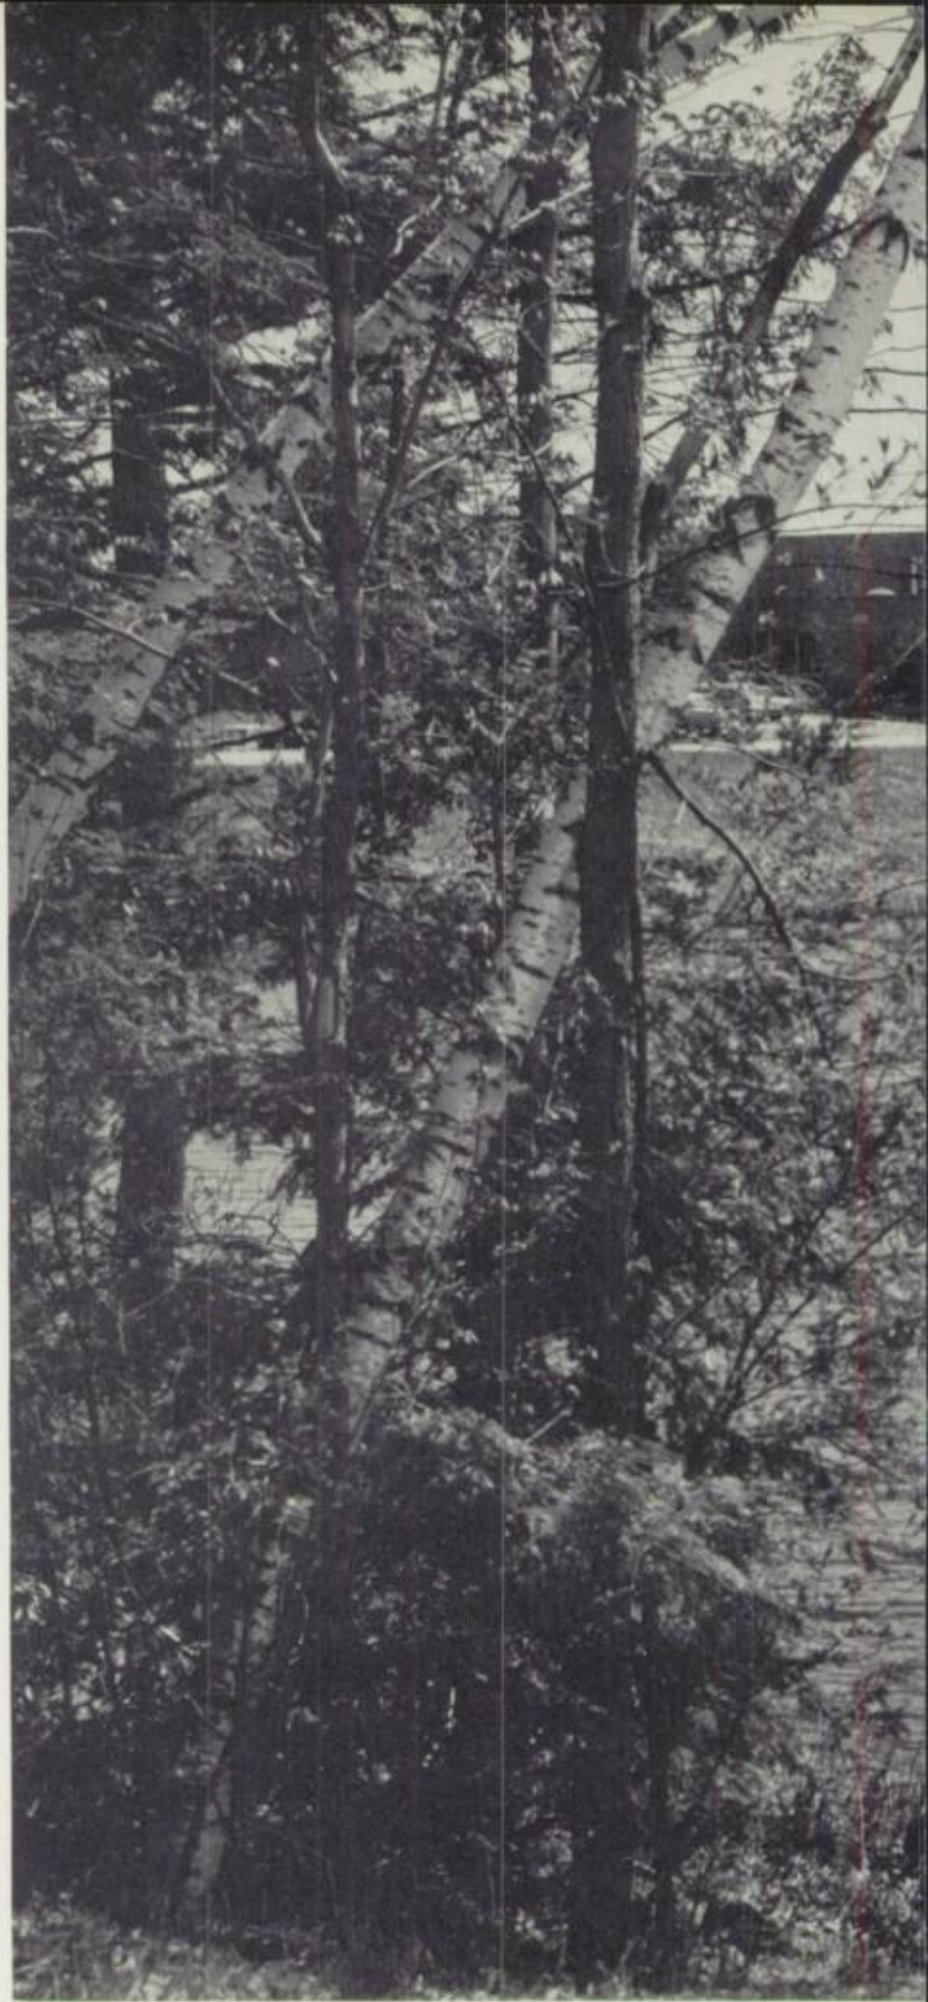

SCHOOL · ORANGE, MASSACHUSETTS

VOLUME VI

FOREWORD

Hi there! My name's Benjamin Schwartz, but you can call me Senator 'cause that's what I am. I live here—in this yearbook, that is. I'll show you through these pages and introduce you to my landlords, the members of the Class of '64. I hope our journey through this book and my commentary will bring back memories of those never-to-be-forgotten days. The musical highlights, the dramatic presentations, and the athletic competition—all are a part of this yearbook. But the major events are not the only memories I want to bring back; all the minor successes and failures are a part of this yearbook, too. Most important of all, this is a story of people—people just starting out in life. So grab your hat and let's go . . .

DEDICATION

We at Mahar are fortunate to have as the head of our music department one of the most capable, dedicated, and inspiring music educators in the state. Mr. Ellison is a graduate of Lowell State Teachers' College, where he majored in vocal music. Besides handling the great amount of work involved in the performances given by the music department, he gives private lessons, plays professionally, raises a family, gives advice to students, and finds them summer jobs. After school, room 42 is a convention hall for those with problems.

In spite of his heavy work-load, "Mr. E." keeps a cheerful smile and a quick wit. Few schools have such a man.

If there's one person I'm grateful I didn't become, it's a teacher. Those poor underpaid, overworked do-gooders never receive the recognition they so richly deserve . . . I mean to correct that situation! I, Benjamin Schwartz, say "Down with the students and up with the faculty!" And now, ladies and gentlemen, meet the famed faculty of Mahar . . .

FACULTY

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1964:

In the years to come, I hope that this fine pictorial account of the activities and accomplishments of your class may serve as a pleasant reminder of the experiences and friendships you shared during your years at Mahar Regional. All of us—administration, faculty, and fellow students—take pride in your class.

The class as a whole distinguished itself through the achievements of its members. Your endeavours in athletics, dramatics, music, and club, as well as your scholastic abilities, will be remembered as a part of the school's history. Classes are made up of individuals, however, and it is well that we remember that fact. The accomplishments of the class are the accomplishments of individuals. Nevertheless, the class as a group showed a laudable attitude of co-operation and team work in its Commencement Week activities and in other activities planned and executed by the class. I urge you to maintain these attitudes.

My sincere best wishes for a future of success and happiness are extended to you.

FACULTY

Light is dim
in the early hours of the morning.
I know there are many paths through the the wilderness, but where are they?
Where do they begin?
Where do they end?
When I do find the paths—which one shall
I choose?
Which is in the direction I want to follow?
I am so confused in the darkness—I wish morning were here.

How blind I am! the stars are out!
I will look to the stars for direction—
They will guide me.

Get that through your heads!

The little Senator undoubtedly discovered that—

The individual who selects the teaching profession as his life's work is accepting a tremendous challenge since his time and effort, will be spent in molding the lives of the future citizens of the country. The teacher trains, instructs, and disciplines in his particular subject area and in allied fields. He attempts to instill, through patience and understanding, proper attitudes, good work habits, adaptability, self-discipline, and responsibility in his students. He is a friend and kindly adviser to all—in the classroom, in the corridor, on the athletic field, or wherever you may meet him.

Studious Seniors!

Now we come to my favorite people—the Seniors. I like them because they are hard-working, industrious, upright individuals who deserve fame and fortune forever and ever. The Seniors possess numerous and varied abilities from athletic powers to theatrical aptitude, from brains to brawn. Let me not delay you any longer from meeting these illustrious Mahar Seniors . . .

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The class of 1964 entered its freshman year well acquainted with Mahar Regional. The orientation period of junior high had ended; we were ready and eager to begin high school. Many of us took advantage of the opportunity to join the senior high band, to participate in assemblies and to play an active role in high school activities. The highlight of our freshman year was our civics trip to New York City. We visited the United Nations and observed New York from the Empire State Building.

With the assistance of Mr. Leary, our class advisor, our sophomore year was a very active one. We returned to New York City, attended Radio City Music Hall, and enjoyed a Yankees vs Red Sox game at Yankee Stadium. To raise money for our treasury our class sponsored a Sophomore Slave Hop. As our student council representatives, we elected Carlton Sauter, Mike Aguda, Sue Dexter and Dave Mankowsky. Under the direction of Miss Costello, we presented the one-act play, "The Kid From Mars". We received our class pins and ordered our class rings.

We came into our junior year as lofty upperclassmen. Thoughts of class rings and plans for our long waited junior prom excited all of us. The theme of the prom was "Moonlight and Roses". To the Class of 1964 it was the best ever presented at Mahar Regional.

Under the direction of Miss Brunell we presented "Raiders to the Sea" as junior one-act play. Carlton Sauter brought prestige to our class by winning the physics grand prize at the science fair. Our Girls' State Representatives were: Janice Olson and Carol Hastings. Our Boy's State Representatives were: Richard Anderson, William Leaders, Carlton Sauter, John Nelson, and David Sibley.

In September, 1963, we reached our destination. At long last we were seniors. The year was ours from the very beginning. Queen Marilyn La Croix reigned during Homecoming Weekend. Our senior pictures were taken earlier than usual and were ready for Christmas.

Under the direction of Mrs. Nahman, we presented "The Lady Who Ate An Oyster" as our one-act play; on May 22 our senior play, "The Land Is Bright" captivated its audience. Our senior prom, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes", marked the beginning of our commencement exercises. On June 3 we reached the end—and the beginning. The past four years live only in memory. Mahar Regional will grow and will change but the Class of 1964 will remember its Alma Mater this way with fondness and respect.

Everytime I think about Graduation, I just want to sit down and cry! (Sniff, sniff). Did you see that girl at the Senior Prom? That Rev. Brownlie at Baccalaureate was pretty good, huh? Wasn't the Class Will a scream on Class Day? And all the Seniors finally received that cherished paper—the diploma—at Graduation. Follow me . . .

GRADUATION

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate services were held May 31, 1964 at 2:00 in the Mahar Auditorium. Mr. Malcom Hall was organist, playing "Pomp and Circumstance" for the Processional and Recessional.

The Opening hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers" was sung by all. After the invocation by Rev. Andrew, Rev. Clayton read the Scripture. The Glee Club sang "I'll Walk With God", and "Prayer for Brotherhood". Rev. Brownlie addressed the Seniors on their future independence. After the closing hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," the Seniors sang their Class Hymn, which was written by Linda Hall. Rev. Seawright gave the benediction.

Rev. Richard Seawright, Rev. Paul Clayton, Rev. Robert Brownlie, and Rev. Benjamin Andrew, Baccalaureate speakers.

CLASS DAY

The Class Day ceremonies opened with the welcome by President Charles Buell, followed by the Class History by Geraldine LaBonte. Jill Ingham and Linda Hall rendered solos. Elizabeth Maynard and Carol Hastings read the Class Will. Mr. Upham presented the Underclass awards plus special awards to many of the Seniors. David Woodcock presented a camera, the class' gift to the school. "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" was sung by the Glee Club. Michael DiRuzza addressed the undergraduates, for whom Stantial Lyford replied. Following the farewell by Rosemary Magee, the Seniors sang the Alma Mater.

Straighten your tie, Bruce!

Look alive, Charlie!

Making faces, Carolyn?

It's not as bad as that, guys!

You're out of step, Betty!

Marie McKenney gives the Welcoming Address.

David Sibley introduces Dr. Quimby.

GRADUATION

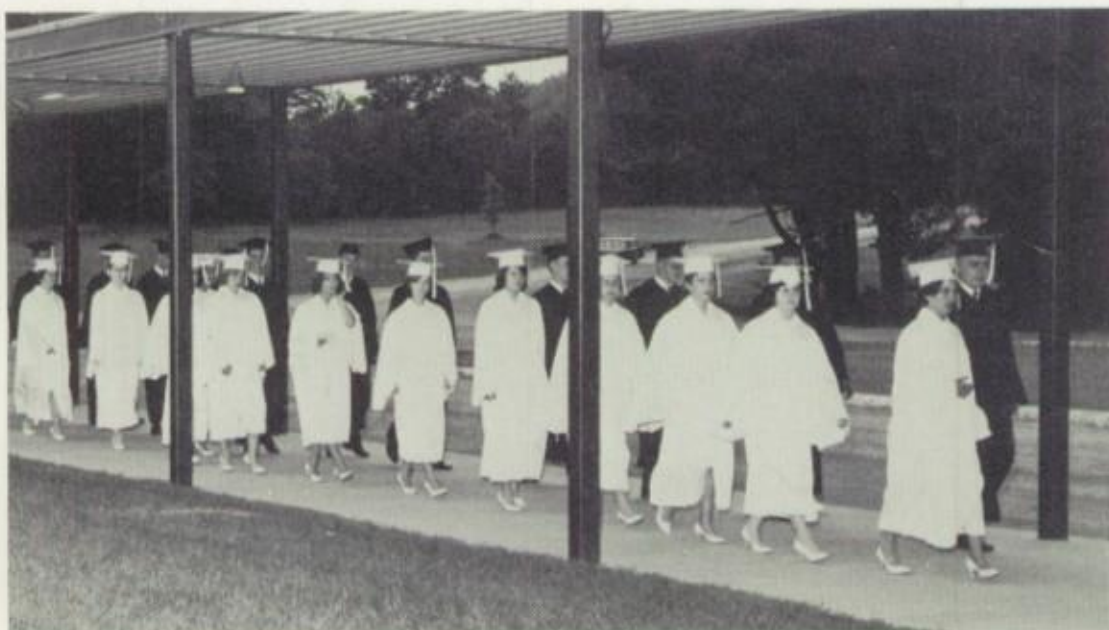

The long-anticipated time for the Class of 1964 was 7:30 P. M. on Wednesday, June 3. The class marched in to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the Band. After Rev. McCormick's invocation, Marie McKenney delivered the address of welcome.

David Sibley introduced Dr. Clarence P. Quimby, the speaker of the evening. Following a selection by the Band, Mr. Edminster presented special awards and scholarships, and Mr. Cook awarded the diplomas. Rev. McNaughton pronounced the benediction.

Directly after the recessional, a receiving line was held outside of the lobby. It was a night of fulfillment for all the graduates.

Mr. Edminster addresses the Seniors before announcing the special awards.

The Seniors prepare for their final march into Mahar.

Dr. Clarence P. Quimby gives the main address to the Seniors.

Betty Maynard receives her diploma and congratulations from Superintendent Cook.

Nelson Bradshaw is awarded his diploma as the rest of the Seniors anxiously await their turns.

Should we laugh or cry?

Ward Johnson joins the ranks of the graduates.

The Seniors wait patiently as the band presents a selection.

SENIOR PROM

"The Night Has a Thousand Eyes", theme of the Senior Prom of the Class of '64, became a reality as guests arrived on Friday night, May 29th. Everyone danced the night away to the music of Mal Hall's orchestra. The girls in lovely dresses and the boys in dinner jackets added to the splendor and beauty of the night.

Seniors, underclassmen, alumni, parents, administration, and visitors enjoyed the evening. However, it will be the members of the Class of '64 who will remember May 29—our Prom.

Noted senior celebrities arrive for the big night.

Bill Skreba executes his duties as an usher.

"The Night Has

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Edminster, Mr. and Mrs. Upham, Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Charles Buell, Marilyn LaCroix, Bill Leaders, and Betty Maynard in the receiving line.

Karen Day introduces one of the prom guests to Mr. Cook.

Roland Letourneau presents Carol Hastings to Mrs. Cook.

Beginning the evening.

A Thousand Eyes"

Class officers Charlie Buell and Betty Maynard lead the grand march.

No one sits down at the Senior Prom!

Mal Hall's orchestra plays for dancing.

Gee, that punch must be good!

SENIOR PROM

Members of the receiving line and ushers.

Marilyn LaCroix and escort at the punch bowl.

Distinguished guests dance the night away.

Kenneth Songer and friend enter the dance floor for the next dance.

Dancing the hours away.

Of course, we cannot forget the rest of the students at Mahar. We all started at the bottom and worked our way up. Without the underclassmen, the Seniors couldn't have been Seniors. For instance, remember John Ginuisz in the Senior Play . . . wasn't he wonderful? And what would the teams have done without the underclassmen? Come . . .

The Junior Class has had an active and successful year. Our class was represented throughout the year in many school activities and varsity sports.

In the fall class officers were chosen and ten members of the class were elected as student council representatives. Under the direction of Mrs. Rooth, we presented "Teenage Party" and won first place in the one-act play competition. We sponsored two pen sales, which were both very successful.

On January 17, 1964 we held the first "Junior Ring Dance". Class rings were presented by the class officers. Our Junior Prom was held on April 3. A "Hootenanny" was presented on April 17.

We wish to express our appreciation to our class advisors, Mrs. Crowson and Miss Whitcomb, for all their assistance.

FRESHMAN CLASS

This year's Freshman Class advisor was Mr. Putnam. Under his supervision, we had two dances; one during the '63' football season, the other after a basketball game on Valentine's Day.

Our class had a candy drive from which we made $180. Each freshman selling three boxes of candy had the opportunity to bowl three free strings. There were prizes awarded for high single, high three string average, and also door prizes.

To end our very successful freshman year, we went on the annual class trip to the United Nations and also to Radio City.

JUNIOR HIGH ACTIVITIES

The Junior High is a very interesting place. It has many activities, such as Class trips, Clubs, and band, a student council, and a Junior National Honor Society. The Student Council is directed by Mrs. Parsons. The Honor Society is directed by Mr. Colo. We have many clubs, including the Checker Club, the Hobby Club, and the Bug Club. Yes, sir! The Junior High certainly is an exciting place.

Activities, activities, activities!
 There are always activities going on at Mahar. Clubs, sports, band, proms, dramatics, glee club, year-book . . . you name it, we've got it! Who could ever forget those famous Mahar dances or the spectacular Variety Show? What about those one-act plays? I say I'm glad to be associated with such talented people in such outstanding endeavours.

HOME COMING

Give me a M-A-H-A-R

Homecoming Day was October 12, 1963. The Queen for the Homecoming Weekend was Marilyn La Croix. Her court was made up of Gerry La Bonte, Marcia Grover, Melody Clark, Joan Preece, and Bette Shovan. Friday night a pep rally was held just outside the Mahar gym for the game with Ware the next day. The Queen and her court were presented in a halftime show by the Band at the game. The score was 14-6 in favor of Ware, but the Mahar team still put out a tremendous effort.

ONE-ACT PLAYS

The annual one-act plays were presented on December 6, 1963. Seniors Susan Oakes, Susan Dexter, Steve Deyo, and Whitney Hawkes, under the direction of Mrs. Nahman, played the leading roles in "The Lady Who Ate an Oyster."

Mrs. Rooth coached the "Teenage Party", which was presented by the junior class. The main characters were played by James Whipple, Bradford Mackey, Judy Lapenas, and Abigail van Alstyne.

The sophomore cast presented "Scrambled Eggs", directed by Mr. Catalini. The cast members were Patricia Whitmore, Bruce Cornwell, John Tandy, Gregory Upham, Bonnie Plotkin, and Diane Porcari.

THE TOGA STAFF

The whole senior class helped to get the yearbook started this year by selling ads during our advertising campaign. Miss Harrington, faculty advisor for the Toga, was instrumental in choosing and working with a capable staff. Editor Marie McKenney and Assistant Editors, Diane McCobb and Betty Maynard competently guided the rest of the staff towards our goal—the best Toga ever to be published. A great deal of time and hard work on the part of many people went into the writing and assembling of this yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the able leadership of Mike Aguda, the Student Council completed another successful and progressive year. A new innovation established by Student Council members was the creation of primary elections, enthusiastic campaigns, and final elections for the following year's senior, junior, and sophomore classes. These elections incited new interest in student government at Mahar. As always, Student Council monitors kept corridor traffic moving freely. All members did their best in representing their respective classes.

The National Honor Society was unusually active this year. The Society sponsored an assembly which featured foreign speakers who explained education in their homelands. Many Society members attended a National Honor Society dinner and conference in Athol on May 5, and enjoyed meeting members of other local Honor Society Chapters. On May 25, sixteen members of our Chapter journeyed to Greenfield Community College to attend a meeting of Franklin County honor students sponsored by the Franklin County Business and Professional Women's Association. New members were inducted at a tapping ceremony, at which a senior candle service was introduced to the Mahar Chapter.

Every Talent And Interest

An integral part of the Mahar extracurricular activities each year is the club program. So diverse are the many clubs that nearly every student can find a club which appeals to his own particular tastes.

Meeting once every two weeks, the clubs accomplish much work beneficial to its members and to the school. Clubs such as the Bicycle Club, Wrestling Club, and the Girls Leaders Club contribute to the physical well-being of the student, while the Crawlers, the Chess Club, the French Club, and many others aid in the mental development of their members.

Much credit is due to the student members and the faculty advisors of the outstanding Mahar clubs.

JUNIOR PROM

The class of 1965 held its Junior Prom on the night of April 10, with the theme of "Stairway to the Stars". The cafeteria was brightly decorated with stars, and a stairway to the sky surrounded by flowers and a fountain.

Among the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Edminster, Mr. and Mrs. Upham, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyford.

Abigail van Alstyne as Queen, and her six attendants reigned over the Prom. Everyone enjoyed the evening as they danced the night away in the starry atmosphere.

On Friday night, May 22, 1964, the Senior Class presented "The Land is Bright" under the direction of Mrs. Ryan and Mr. Catalini. The play was the story of a Western family, moved East, suddenly finding themselves millionaires. The audience was captivated by Lacey Kincaid's murder, Tana's many husbands, Linda's wild escapade, and Ellen's wit. It was a lot of work but we're proud that the honors of the evening went to the Class of 1964!

JUNIOR RING DANCE

The Class of '65 shall be remembered for holding the first ring dance in Mahar's history. Planned as a formal ceremony for receiving the Junior Class Rings, the dance was a big success. The ritual involved singing a class song and stepping through a large gold ring constructed by the students. The rings were presented by the class officers, Stan Lyford, Abby van Alstyne, Peggy Bradbury, Gail Estey, and Candy Cameron. They were each accompanied by a small page and the evening was well received by the school.

Mr. Edminster, Principal, addresses the Juniors.

The bold Senior boys beg for a "little kiss" as the entire cast of the show add their voices to the boys' plea.

Paint And Powder Revue

The Fifth Annual Variety Show was presented at Mahar on May 1, 1964. This year's theme was Paint and Powder Revue, Second Edition. The show, directed by Mr. Ellison, was accompanied by Mr. "E" on the piano, Dave Sibley on the bass, and Ronnie Chaisson and Bill Larkin on the drums.

The acts varied from comedy to sentimentality, from modern jazz to folk songs, from solos to the huge opening and closing choruses. Each year the show grows in size, interest, and quality.

Linda Hall sings "Make Someone Happy"

Melody Clark and Kathy Belmont 'sing up' a "Bushel and a Peck."

Linda Brown and Kathy Belmont sing "Silver Threads and Golden Needles" accompanied by the Electras.

And-a-One, And-a-Two, And-a

The vocal section of the Music Department consisted of the Glee Club and two chorus classes. The classes met five times a week, just as regular classes. Mr. Ellison feels that the chorus program has done much to improve the singers. His ultimate goal is to bring vocal music up to par with instrumental music at Mahar. In order to have more time to work with the other groups, Mr. Ellison kept the Singing Senators more inactive than in other years.

As usual, the chorus participated in the Spring Concert and the Music Festival, which was in Hadley this year. It also gave fine support to the Christmas Assembly presented by the Dramatics Department.

Eight people from the Vocal Department participated in the Western Massachusetts All-District Chorus and several more in a special clinic held in Greenfield.

Senior High Band with Director, Mr. Ellison

The Senior Band enjoyed a very busy year. In addition to football games last fall, the band represented Mahar at the Eastern States Exposition in Springfield.

After the Annual Spring Concert, the Band participated in exchange concerts with the Ayer High School Band. Our Band also went to Hadley for the Music Festival, which was competitive this year. Everyone was proud of the band's fine performance there.

To end the season, the band marched in the Memorial Day Parade in Orange. As usual, several band members went to the Western Massachusetts All-District Band. David Sibley was selected to participate in the All-State Band in New Bedford.

The twirlers, who did an excellent job this year, were headed by Diane McCobb, a prize-winning twirler.

Members of the Student Exchange Committee: David Woodcock, David Mankowsky, Patricia Gmyrek and Elizabeth Maynard.

Sports events have always excited interest at Mahar. I became interested in football when I came to see those pretty little cheerleaders and that outstanding band. During basketball season, I came to see a unique feature—girl scorekeepers. I attended baseball games to get a tan but found I became interested in the sport when played by such an expert team. See? . . .

SPORTS

Spirit And Morale . . .

Spurred on by tri-captains Bruce Lawson, Douglas Morin, and Gary Bergquist, the Mahar football team showed great enthusiasm and spirit on the football field. If spirit alone won games, Mahar would have had an undefeated season.

Great improvement was evident in the fact that our team held nearly all opposing teams scoreless in the second half. While Mahar may have been losing games, the younger members of the team were gaining experience, which we are sure will prove valuable next year.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Field Hockey team, captained by Rosemary Magee, Janice Olson, and Shirley Perkins, and coached by Mrs. Cramer, had a fairly successful season, ending with a record of five wins and four losses. The highest point of the season occurred at the second Northampton game when Mahar won one to nothing, Jani Olson of our team being the only player of all Northampton's opponents to score against them. A bright spot in the defense was Junior goalie Karen Olson who scored shutouts in four of the five victories.

SOCCER

The 1963 soccer season was the best ever. The team ran to glory undefeated. Mahar scored a total of 47 goals while the various opponents made only six, two of which were scored accidentally by Mahar men. The Soccer Team finished the season as the highest scoring team in Western Massachusetts. The two highest scorers in Western Massachusetts were members of our team, Enver Softic, 20 goals, and Jim Odhiambo, 19 goals.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Clare Magee,
Cindy Burrill, Sandy Englestead, Pat Whitmore.

CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders chalked up a very successful season this year. Under the direction of Miss Perkins, the squad put in endless hours of practice, and, at gametime spurred the team on with never failing pep and enthusiasm. Throughout the season the cheerleaders did a fine job raising school spirit and were a credit to Mahar.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Nancy Spear, Sandy Englestead, Pat Whitmore, Mary Preece, Paula Smith, Linda Cummings.

Determined And Enthusiastic . . .

VARSITY

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls basketball team was coached by Mrs. Cramer, and captained by Shirley Perkins and Janice Olson. Although the squad did not have too successful a season—ending with three wins and seven losses—the members of the team did enjoy playing the games.

The best game was played against arch-rival Athol, when, out for revenge from an earlier three point loss, 36 to 39, the Mahar girls really bombed the Athol team, 36 to 24. Rosemary Magee led the team in total points scored with 130.

Sorry, Pam, no Judo chops allowed!

JUNIOR VARSITY

Mahar's Baseball team managers and coach (l-r):
(Sitting) Gary Harris, Harold Rock, Barry Brocklesby,
 Sylvester Stempel, David Woodcock, Bruce Lawson,
 Charlie Buell, Frank Waters, Enver Softic. (Standing)

Manager Jeff Culver, Andy Brownlie, John Ellsworth, Eddie Prondecki, Gary Cole, Skippy Crowson, Paul Smith, and Manager Larry Krupnick. Coach Spadafora is standing in forefront.

BASEBALL

The 1964 baseball season at Mahar was highly successful. Mahar finished second in its first year as a member of the Hampshire League. Highlights of the year were a no-hitter by Gary Harris against Smith Academy, a one hitter by Frank Waters also against Smith, eight hits in one inning in a game against Hopkins, and a tough 3-2 loss in 13 innings to league champion Arms Academy. Senior starters Bruce Lawson, Charlie Buell, and David Woodcock will be missed next year, but Coach Spadafora has a good nucleus of returnees.

Batter up!

Come on, umpire! Look awake!

Enie Softic, Frank Waters, and Gary Cole show us what they can do.

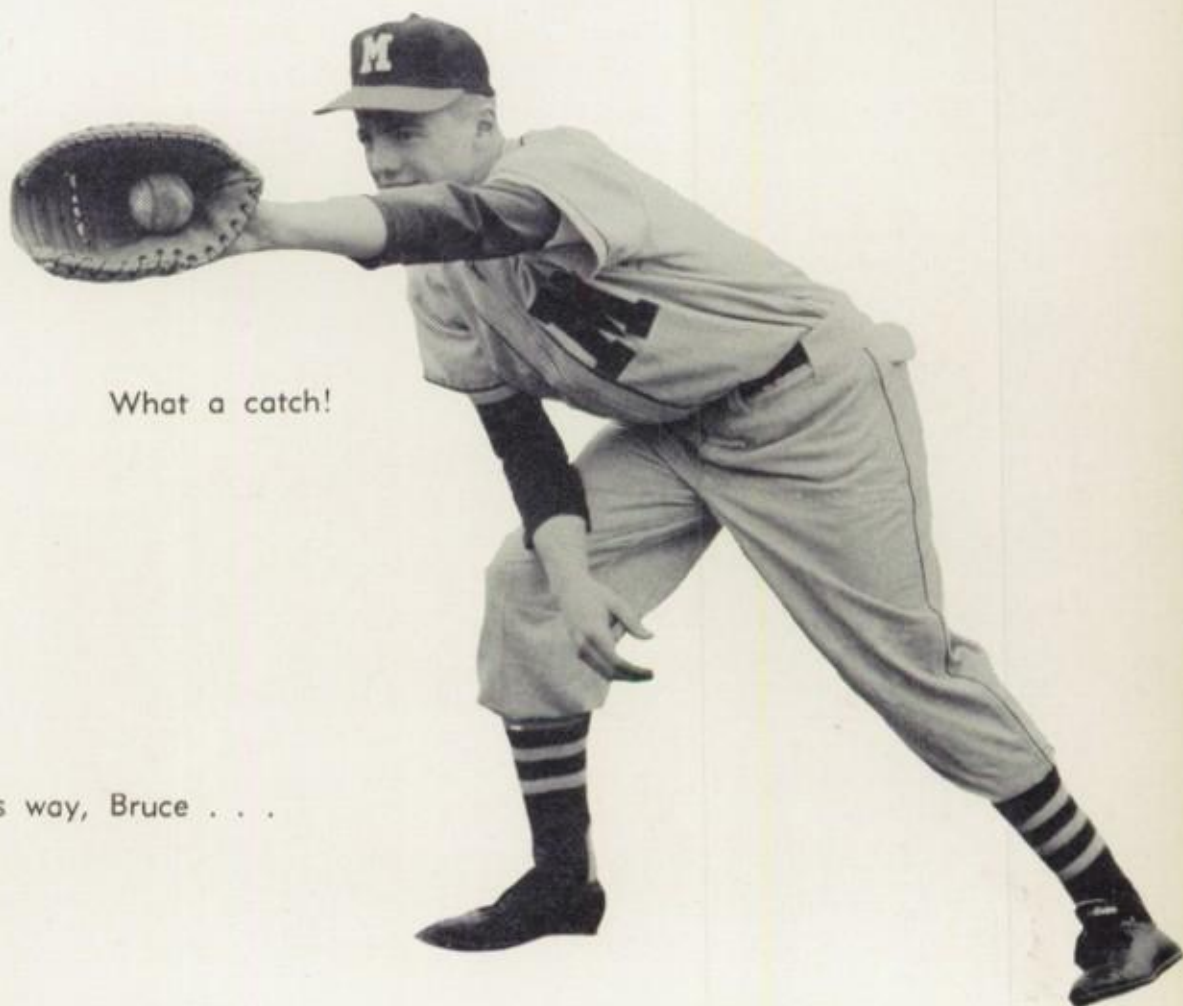

Our three senior baseball stars, Charlie Buell, Dave Woodcock, and Bruce Lawson.

TRACK

The Mahar track team completed its first successful season this year with a record of 4 wins, 2 losses and a second in a quadrangular meet. The team was led by co-captains Stan Lyford and Gary Bergquist.

Besides the many broken records, the highlight of this season was our 70-52 win over Palmer, the first win over Palmer in the history of Mahar track.

Randy Scott demonstrates the short-put.

Dennis Hayden throws the javelin.

Mike Krunklevich pole vaults.

Stan Lyford and Al Dirth wait for the gun in the 880.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM (l-r) front row: Joyce Ross (manager), Jani Olson, Bev Paquin, Mimi Hellen, Kathy Godfrey, Laurretta Barnes, Diane Porcari, Gail Bergquist. Second row: Mrs. Cramer (coach), Norma Woodward, Linda DiRuzza, Shirley Perkins, Judy Swim, Sharon Brooks, Rody Magee, Glen Amidon, Sheila Botti (manager).

SOFTBALL

The girls' softball team, coached by Mrs. Cramer and captained by Rody Magee and Melody Clark, ended one of the finest seasons at Mahar with a record of seven wins and two losses.

The highlight of the season was the 7-1 victory over Greenfield. Sharon Brooks pitched a shutout until the last inning. Outstanding on offense were Linda DiRuzza and Rody Magee, who batted over .500 for the season.

Where's the ball?

You've got it . . . or have you?
